Osaka International Church Senior Pastor Advertisement

Osaka International Church (OIC), Osaka city, Japan, is praying for God to send us a new senior pastor. We feel that this position will be filled best by someone who:

- is called by God to pastoral ministry and walks daily in fellowship with God.
- believes the Bible to be the inspired, inerrant Word of God.
- is an ordained Minister with previous pastoral experience.
- is able to do expository preaching in a way that challenges people to apply the Bible teaching to their lives.
- Biblical counseling skills for emotional needs necessary.
- is skilled in relating cross-culturally to all ages with a heart to grow our ministry.
- has a pastor's heart, full of God's love. Responsible for feeding the sheep and encouraging fellowship.
- is a fluent English speaker.
- an understanding of Japanese culture preferable.
- experience of living and working in Japan a plus.
- some ability to speak Japanese a plus.

OIC is an international church comprised of 60% Japanese people and a variety of other nationalities (North America, Europe, Asia, Africa).
